VOL. 56 — No. 26

Observations... From Around Town

(BY JAY WIOZIT)

All of a very few persons know about it. Bay St. Louis was honored this week by a visit from Miss Renee Ruby from France, who is in this country as a secretary in the Language Division of the United Nations Organization, Miss Ruby was a guest at Hotel Reed . . . Bay St. Louis Postoffice has been made first class, and will come under that classification beginning July 1st, receipts in 1946 exceeded $40,000.00, more than double those of 1939 . . . our old friend, Father Leo Fahey was in town this week visiting relatives and friends, and spreading his usual good cheer . . . our local Little Theater organization, which seems to be growing by leaps and bounds, will present as its next offering the play, "Outward Bound," by Sutton Vane, on the nights of July 24-25, 26, and will be directed by Lt. John Horrocks . . . Howard LeTissier, of the Hotel Reed, and the Missus, have been really gallant around, first attending the Convention of Rotary International in San Francisco, and from there visiting Howard's father, at Bath, Ill., and later visiting relatives of Mrs. LeTissier at Memphis, better get back home, Howard, we miss you . . . well, that new thirty-third passenger bus for Bay High School has finally arrived and it is a beauty, our boys and girls can really go places now and how . . . Honorable Walter L. McGahey, State Land Commissioner and candidate for re-election, was in town this week, shaking hands with his friends. Our friend, Mr. Joe Mauffray had him in tow, showing him around town . . . under provisions of the Mississippi election laws, young men and women who become twenty-one years of age on or before November 4, 1947, may vote in the August primaries without payment of Poll Tax, providing they have registered not later than July 3, 1947, in the Poll Book for the precinct in which they reside . . . political announcements are conspicuous by their absence in this issue of our paper, contrary to what has been the case for the past few weeks . . . we are glad to hear that Mrs. Ben Hille, who has been seriously ill at the Baptist Hospital in New Orleans for the past couple of weeks, is reported showing much improvement . . . the Bay-Waveland Garden Club installed its new officers this week; they are Mrs. Eugene Mogabgab, President; Mrs. J. R. Rollins and Mrs. Max Kohler, vice-presidents; Mrs. E. P. Kirkpatrick, parliamentarian; Mrs. C. A. Breath, corresponding secretary; Mrs. J. C. Mauffray, recording secretary; Mrs. E. F. Fahey, Jr., treasurer. Mrs. Kirkpatrick was the installing officer.

Mrs. Mogabgab gave a resume of the work done in the past year and said that she was gleefully herself to have a bigger and better year in 1947-48, and felt that if she had the same cooperation and support from her officers and board that this could be accomplished. In the past year the club gave $500 to the Kings Daughters Hospital for the furnishing and equipping of a children's ward as a Memorial to the men and women who gave their services and sometimes their lives to the country in the recent war; gave $25 to the Polio campaign, sent a Hancock County boy to a conservation school; sponsored a successful clean up campaign; entertained the Garden Club members and officers who were attending the Mississippi State Garden Clubs convention. The expenses for this were defrayed by the City, County Rotary Club, and Chamber of Commerce; four club members attended the judging school at Biloxi; Club received one of the two awards given in the state for its Camellia Show; club received the tri-color award for the spring flower show; stock law became effective in Waveland; Mrs. H. G. Williams was chairman of the Beautification for Waveland.

Mrs. Mogabgab appointed the following committees to serve for 1947-1948: Beautification for Bay St. Louis: Mrs. J. R. Shadoin; Beautification for Waveland: Mrs. E. N. Spence; Program: Mrs. J. R. The purpose of this organization is for zoning, beautification, completion of the Wisteria Trail started by the Bay-Waveland Club and for the planning of fiestas.

The club met on the lawn of the beautiful home of the J. E. V. Holzers and Mrs. Holzer was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. H. G. Williams, Mrs. Francis Bopp and Miss Josie Miller. A delicious ice was served with cake.

The club members were invited to go over the spacious and beautiful grounds of the home.

SECRETARY LANGUAGE DIVISION OF UNITED NATIONS VISITS

Miss Renee Ruby, Secretary in the Language Division of the United Nations, has been registered at Hotel Reed for a week. She left Thursday for a trip through Florida which will complete her vacation and then on to New York to resume her work on July 7th.

Miss Ruby arrived in New York from her home in Paris, France, on October 4, 1946.

When asked how she was enjoying her stay in the United States she said that she was charmed with the country. She had a wide acquaintance with America through reading and regrets that it was necessary for her trip from France to New York to be made by plane that she did not get to see the Statue of Liberty that she had heard and read so much about. However she intends to make the visit to it soon as she can find the time for work is heavy.

When her vacation came on June 14 she with some other friends motored to New Orleans and the others in the party went from there to Texas and Miss Ruby came by choice to Bay St. Louis. She is somewhat disappointed to have struck a rainy santon because she wanted to get in more swimming than has been possible but she said "I am not complaining—it is only that I am so accustomed to sunshine as I do not have the rain in Southern France."

When asked what has impressed her most in America she quickly replied, "The material perfection—hot and cold water in your hotel room, a bath to each room and the easy freedom of automobiles." The lights on Broadway fascinated me she said.

"I was not disappointed in America in any way but I do find the people of the South much more cordial and easier to know than the people of New York but I found the Americans who were in France during the war much friendlier than those one meets here."

Miss Ruby liked the historical background of New Orleans and was most interested in the early history of Bay St. Louis and its French atmosphere.

The visitor from France with her splendid English and soft French accent says she hopes that she may have another opportunity of visiting New Orleans and the Coast again.

"GOD OF CREATION" SOUND PICTURE TO BE SHOWN

At Bay High School July 1st—No Admission

The God of Creation, a sound film in color will be shown in the auditorium of the Bay High School on Tuesday, July 1, at 8 p. m. under the direction of the Moody Bible Institute and sponsored by the First Baptist Church.

There will be no admission and Mr. Dearing, the pastor, extends a cordial invitation to the general public to see this film which will take 52 minutes to run. The picture is a sermon in science and shows the glory of the universe as depicted in Astronomy, Social Science and the Microscope.

Mr. Dearing says that this film has been shown in different churches all over the nation and is recognized by leaders of all denominations. Rarely has a film of this reverence been made and the force of its impact is felt in opening the eyes of all who have heretofore taken the glories of the universe as a matter of course.

There will be no sermon, only the showing of the film which will consume 52 minutes of time. Don't fail to see it.

BAY HIGH ATHLETIC BUS ARRIVES

One of the worst needs of the Bay St. Louis City Schools was corrected last Friday when the Athletic Department bus was delivered to the school. Superintendent S. J. Ingram, by the Gulf Chevrolet Company. The bus, costing $3600 will hold 33 people and their clothes and equipment.

This bus was purchased by the Student Activities department of Bay High with money made by the different school organizations.

Even with the purchase of this bus, the activity fund is still ample to begin the athletic and physical education program planned for next school term.

Walter L. McGahey, State Land Commissioner Visits in Interest of His Candidacy

Honorable Walter L. McGahey, our affable and pleasant Land Commissioner for the State of Mississippi, who is a candidate for reelection to this important office, was a visitor in Bay St. Louis on Wednesday, renewing acquaintances and forming new ones.

Mr. McGahey held a responsible position in the State Land office prior to his appointment in 1946 to fill the unexpired term of Guy McCullen, who was named Motor Vehicle Comptroller.

He has made quite a record in the Land Commissioners' Office during his short tenure. He is competent and efficient in the exercise of his duties, and any inquiry directed to him receives a courteous and intelligent response.

Mr. McGahey's wife is a relative of the Mauffray family and our good friend Joe, was about town with him on the occasion of his visit.

ACCIDENT ON HIGHWAY 90 CLAIMS LIVES OF TWO MEN

A truck owned by a Biloxi Sea Food Company killed two men employed by the Louisiana Highway Department on Tuesday morning about 9:30 A. M. on Highway 90 between Chef Menteur and Rigolets.

One of the men killed was Arthur L. Banderet, a brother of the late Fred Banderet, Sr., of Bay St. Louis. His body was crushed beneath the wheels of the truck. Narrowly escaping death in the same accident was Ed Ladner and Jules LaFrance of Ansley and Harvey Roberts former resident of this section.

Mr. Banderet it seems was spreading shells on the shoulder of the road, which a co-worker, who was also killed, was unloading from a truck. In order to allow traffic to pass the shell truck, a car occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Allan McClure stopped ahead of the truck driven by Mr. Roberts. The seafood truck following the other vehicles struck the Roberts truck, which was loaded with cattle, and then out of control struck the workmen who were killed.

The driver of the Sea Food truck, Donald Raley of Biloxi, Miss., was held for investigation by the New Orleans District Attorney Office, and later charged with negligent homicide.

Mr. Banderet in addition to his other relatives is survived by his nephews, Fred, Jr., Charles and Louis Banderet of Bay St. Louis.

BAY ST. LOUIS POST OFFICE ADVANCES TO FIRST CLASS

The Bay St. Louis Post Office will be advanced to the rank of a first class office on July first, 1947. In order for a post office to be classed as a first class it is necessary that the revenue exceed $40,000.00 per year.

During 1946 the Bay St. Louis office did the largest amount of business in the history of Bay St. Louis. It far exceeded the war years, when we could ordinarily expect a large postal business. 1947 up to the present time is yet in excess of 1946.

The revenue of the local office increased from $19,000.00 in 1939 to over $40,000.00 in 1946. This shows a sound increase of business in Bay St. Louis.

During the past year rural routes were extended to include many sections that did not have mail service before. The City route was extended to cover new territory and an additional carrier was added, and as a result the service was bettered in every section served.

An extension was added to the Kiln Star route and a large section beyond Kiln is now being served. We may at any time hear of other added improvements that will tend to give a better service in the delivery and dispatch of the mails.

The Mand sales were among the highest of any post office in the State of Mississippi, and the Postmaster and his clerks are to be commended for the good work that they are doing in this behalf.

"Outward Bound" Little Theater's Next Play

Members of the Bay St. Louis Little Theater and their guests are promised an unusual treat in the theater's next production, which will be the play "OUTWARD BOUND," by Sutton Vane. This play has been done on Broadway and in the movies, and it has been one of the great successes of the stage and screen. Performances are scheduled for July 24, 25 and 26, and it is expected, with the great influx of summer visitors that the theater will be filled each night to capacity.

OUTWARD BOUND will be directed by Lieut. John Horrocks, U. S. N. and the cast is as follows:

Scrubby Chester Davis
Ann Ruth Otis
Henry Joe di Benedetto
Mr. Prior Nigel Rafferty
Mrs. Cliveden Helen Horrocks
Rev. William Duke Huey
Mrs. Midget Adaline Knoblock
Mr. Lingey Philip Allison
Rev. Frank Trombsen
Lt. Louis Shetter, USMS.

Mrs. H. A. Oxenham will assist as an authority on all things British, and the set will be under the direction of John Lachin.

The Little Theater wants to remind you that there are still a few memberships open, and suggests that anyone interested in joining contact either Rene De Monluzin treasurer, or Richard Shadoin, president.

Final Arrangements Made For Legion's July 4th Celebration

Installation of Altars and Decoration of Church Progresses

Day by day the work of decorating the interior of the Church of Our Lady of the Gulf is nearing completion and at this time visitors can draw a vivid picture in their mind as to what the interior of the church will be when completed. For several weeks, painters under the direction of Mr. Rudolph Compe, the contractor have been at work. The paintings on the ceiling and the dome of the sanctuary where a life size portrait of Mary, under the title of Our Lady of Gulf, with the Child Jesus in her arms, resting on a cloud over the Gulf, with two fishing boats under full sail, is the work of this artist.

The marble altars and communion rail have arrived from Italy and the main altar has been installed, under the direction of Merena Tedeschi, supervisor for Benziger Bros. and two competent assistants. This itself is a work of art. Plans and specifications have to be followed in every detail. The main altar alone consists of 277 pieces of marble and each has to be placed properly. The altar is made of Botticino marble, while the columns are of Portasanta. The pelican in the center is of pure white carrara marble with gold Venetian mosaic in the background.

The installation of the side altars and communion rail will follow the work on the main altar.

The work on the church must be completed prior to October 14th, which is the tentative date set for the Centennial Celebration.

Friends of St. Stanislaus Asked To Contribute For Purchase of New Bus

Prior to the closing of the 1946-47 school session St. Stanislaus purchased a new bus to be used for the transportation of the Athletic teams and the band to the away from home games and activities. The one bus is not sufficient for this purpose. When the teams play away from home the band should be along with them, and with one bus this is not possible.

In the final issue of the Rock-A-Chaw, Brother Peter, President of St. Stanislaus addressed the following appeal to the Alumni and Friends of St. Stanislaus: "The New Stanislaus Bus is a fine addition, but it is inadequate to transport both the Athletic teams and the band to the away from home games and activities."

Will the friends of Saint Stanislaus come to our aid now?

Open the purse strings of your heart and do something that will help you to share in the great work of Saint Stanislaus. Every check, large or small will be welcome and gratefully acknowledged.

We are informed by Brother Peter that he is meeting with an encouraging response and that they have an opportunity to have a fine bus delivered within a month.

It is seldom that we are asked to lend financial assistance to St. Stanislaus. The school means much to Bay St. Louis. Money could not pay for the advertisement that it has brought to us, and we at this time have an opportunity to help the one institution around which this community is built.

Will you help? We are certain that you will. Won't you send your check to Brother Peter as soon as you read this appeal?

DELEGATES TO AMERICAN LEGION CONVENTION REPORT

At the State convention of the American Legion held in Biloxi on July 22nd to 25th, from Bay St. Louis a special delegation composed of Laurent Dickson, Chairman; Ed Ortle, John Ruthenford, Willie Green, Jos. Colson and Henry Capdepon called on Mr. Touchstone, Chairman of the State Board of Education and a member of the Legion with reference to the Gulf Coast Trade School of this City not being able to teach white students. This delegation was given every assurance by Mr. Touchstone that authority would be granted to open the school for white as well as colored and it is expected that permission will be received in the very near future.

It was very gratifying to note that the Bay St. Louis Post delegation received recognition on various important committees, and outstanding was the election of Ed P. Ortle as a delegate to the National Convention which will be held in New York the Legion could not have elected job.

All arrangements have been completed for the big Independence Day celebration of the American Legion at the St. Stanislaus ball field on July Fourth beginning at 9:00 A. M. Consistent with this organization's policy, there will be entertainment for the grown ups as well as the kids and from all indications everyone in attendance will have an opportunity to compete in one or more of the contests that will be staged.

There will be a good ball game played between Gulfport and Pica-yune which should be a very interesting contest as both of these teams are keen rivals and will both play to win as this will be one of the deciding games in the Coast Legion Championship.

Through the courtesy of Mr. Chas. A. Breath local agent for the J. C. Higgins Co. of New Orleans, the mahogany plywood boat together with trailer and outboard motor will be on display and tickets will be sold for a chance to win this complete outfit which will be second prize in the Legion's giant raffle. The first prize being a Ford De Luxe two door sedan furnished by the Bay Motors, directly through the Ford Motor Co. and which car does not come off of their local quota. Inasmuch as this car could not be delivered in time to display at the picnic, it will be shown on arrival at the Bay Motor's new building shortly after July 30th.

On this raffle, one ticket will entitle the holder to a chance on the car as first prize and on the boat and equipment as second prize.

It is expected that a good many of the candidates for County office as well as State office will be present at this celebration and that quite a few political speeches will be heard, therefore, if you want to see your favorite candidate in action, don't fail to attend.

Candidates desiring to speak at this celebration please get in touch with Mr. D. M. Russell or Mr. John Rutherford, Jr., of Bay St. Louis so that necessary arrangements can be made and time allotted you.

The Clement R. Bontemps Post No. 139 of the American Legion has made every effort and has spared no money to make this Independence Day Celebration a huge success and as mentioned before, there will be entertainment for all, so if you want to spend a full day of fun and relaxation, plan to come early and stay late and make this coming July 4th a day to remember.

DON'T FORGET—the date July 4th. The Day Friday, the place St. Stanislaus Stadium—the time 9 A. M. to 7 P. M.

ORTTE THEATER SUNDAY - MONDAY "THE SHOCKING MISS PILGRIM"

Starring Betty Grable And
Dick Haymes

Betty Grable and Dick Haymes are always top news in the field of motion picture musicals.

But when these two leading stars are paired in a film that boasts a score of new, previously unpublished and unheard songs by the late and great George Gershwin, that's an actor's first female typist, and Dick Haymes as her reluctant employer, musical excitement. The picture shares singing honors.

Twentieth-Century-Fox's Technicolor hit, "The Shocking Miss Pilgrim," at the Ortte Theater, Sunday and Monday.

In addition to its stars and songs, "The Shocking Miss Pilgrim" is said to offer one of the most delightfully amusing and romantic stories of the year. Set against the colorful background of Boston in the 1870's the picture unfolds the saga of this country's first "female typewriter" who stormed the rock-ribbed citadel of the American business office—heretofore a strictly male domain—into which no respectable girl would dare poke her shiny nose.

ORTTE THEATER WED. - THURSDAY "MY BROTHER TALKS TO HORSES"

Presented by MGM With
"Butch" Jenkins And
Peter Lawford

Every once in a while there comes out of Hollywood a story that is of personal appeal to every member of the family from Grandpa down to little Junior. Such a story is unfolded on the Ortte screen in "My Brother Talks to Horses," with "Butch" Jenkins, Peter Lawford, Beverly Tyler and Spring Byington comprising a household that may not be exactly like the one next door but is one you will find difficult to forget.

"Butch" as little Lewie, hangs around a Baltimore race track and loses horses to the point where he feels he can communicate with them. This uncanny proclivity enables him to pick out the winners in every race, a point which is of considerable interest to turfman Edward Arnold, to a trio of track gamblers headed by Charlie Ruggles, and to Lewie's brother Peter Lawford, who needs some ready cash to enable him to marry his sweetheart, Beverly Tyler.

When it appears that their get-rich-quick schemes will be realized, the shock of seeing his favorite horse killed in a race robs Lewie of his extraordinary powers of divination. The manner in which the family fortunes are recouped leads to some excitingly suspenseful situations before the happy final fadeout.

"Butch" Jenkins is completely endeavoring as the youngster who understands horses and who moves about with every mongrel in town at his heels. Peter Lawford is convincing as the brother who tries in vain to get backing for his radio invention. Beverly Tyler of "Green Years," fame brings the Gibson Girl to life in the delightful early 1900 costumes, and Spring Byington steals the comedy honors as the zany mother of the family.

Beat 5

A matter of grave importance which should prove interesting to the citizens, particularly of Beat 5, was the repairing of the Drive Way and Sea Wall two and one-half years ago.

Few people know how close we came to losing this beautiful structure, and very few know the inside story, especially how close an expenditure of possibly $100,000 might have been spent, but after a little maneuvering and proper management same was completed for a little less than $6,000.00, "Believe it or not."

The story and facts are as follows: Over a period of six years the filling under the front section of the Seawall had been washed away in numerous places, high tides, back wash and rains had washed the road bed from the back and the water caused crevasses under the road, in most cases it found its way out through and under the Seawall. Then hollows forming under the road bed naturally destroyed and removed the mud and sand foundation. This caused the paved road to sink in numerous places. The big cement slabs without foundation began to sink under the heavy traffic of trucks and automobiles. The protecting Seawall in front also sank and was dislodged in many places, this was indeed a critical condition and more critical yet was the fact that the County Treasury was in very bad shape.

I instructed the County Engineer to make a careful survey of the condition of the Seawall and road. He reported seventeen bad places with wash outs underneath, that needed immediate repair. We requested from contractors approximate estimates on these particular places. The estimate was a minimum of $2,200.00 per place. The repair work called for tearing up the cement slabs, filling hollow places and laying new cement spans same process with Seawall in front. This, of course, was the old time method and the only way to have it done by local contractors, at this rate the 17 places would have amounted to about $37,000.00 and the bad features was lack of sufficient funds in the County Treasury to carry on the work.

I could not help believing there was an easier and more economical way of doing this work, I made inquiries and learned that the State Highway Department had equipment for this type of repairing, known as a Mud Jack. I immediately contacted the State Highway Commissioner, Mr. Mundell Bush and after explaining the condition of the Seawall, the importance it meant to the community, also the condition of our financial status, I requested that he give his assistance in this matter. Of course you must realize that this is not a State Highway road, and that Mr. Bush was not responsible for its up keep, however he realized the importance of same and agreed to send his superintendent down to investigate.

After the investigation and the coring, by that I mean the drilling of holes 3 inches in diameter through the road, it was learned there were many more bad places than first reported. After this survey I again contacted Mr. Bush, who agreed to assist us in the repair work at a very low cost to the County which constituted a low rental per day for the State's equipment which was, 3 trucks, mud jack and truck and cement mixer, he furnished all labor and the County furnished the cement.

The process of this work was to pump the cement mixed with clay under the road and seawall. By the pressure of the mud jack the seawall and road was raised back into position, the cement and clay formed a hard filling which was far superior to the old filling that had washed away.

This work went along for nearly two months and approximately 100 places were reconditioned, if all these places had been repaired under the original manner, at a rate of not $2,200.00 per place, but say $1,000.00 it would still have been a cost to the County in the neighborhood of $100,000.00. The correct grand total this work and complete repairing of the entire seawall amounted to was a little less than $6,000.00 which meant a tremendous saving to the County. So the above is how our Seawall and Beach Road were saved.

So again I quote, "Action Speaks Louder Than Words."

On the Lake Shore road which is nearing completion I wish to remind you that Mr. Bush is also assisting the County in the completion of this road, which is not a part of the State road program. Recently he agreed with me that if the County would bring the road bed up to specifications of the Highway Department they would finish the paving. This medium of co-operation has certainly proven beneficial to Hancock County and will give us a grand, much needed road at a very low cost.

Yours for a better County and a happier place to live.

June Meeting of Womans Society of Christian Service Held Tuesday Afternoon

At the June meeting of the Womans Society of Christian Service held on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. P. E. Pierce, it was decided that a free will offering be taken at the July meeting, the money to be used in helping to defray the expenses of girls in their junior and senior years at Scarritt College. The girls thus aided are to give two years service in the mission fields.

The ladies of the Society entertained the Veterans of the Gulfport Veterans' Hospital on Tuesday on the lawn of Mrs. Oliver Radford's on North Beach.

Mrs. L. Ginn gave the devotional "Where Children May Flourish," and Mrs. Carl T. Smith discussed the topic, "Children and the Law."

Mrs. Smith gave the purposes of the program to indicate 1. The necessity for knowing what happens to a child gainfully employed. 2. The need for educating the public as to what is involved in securing adequate protection for children. 3. Through specific examples, ways by which child labor laws may be made and caused to function. 4. The value of reporting harmful conditions. 5. Some present needs for laws protecting children. 6. The unique position of church women in their influence as regards protective legislation for children.

Entertaining with Mrs. Pierce were Mrs. George Schilling and Miss Florence Dixon. A delicious cooling drink was served with cake.

STATE BOND COMMISSION
The State Bond Commission, composed of Governor Fielding L. Wright, Attorney General Greek L. Rice and Treasurer Newton James, has done an outstanding job for the State in refunding State Bonds. They have saved the tax payers thousands and thousands of dollars in interest.

HIGHWAY BONDS

The 1946 session of the Legislature authorized the issuing of $30,000,000 in Road bonds. These bonds are payable from the Gasoline Tax and the full faith and credit of the State is not pledged for Road bond issues. However, the Federal Government matches the bond issues, dollar for dollar, and the $30,000,000 authorized by the legislature and the $30,000,000 from the Federal Government gives the State Highway Department a road fund to be used in the future of $60,000,000 to carry on the great road program of the State. The outstanding Bonds as of June 1, 1947, as shown by the record of the State Treasurer, Newton Jones, was $52,744,000. In this total some of the bonds of the $30,000,000 authorized by the 1947 Session of the Legislature included in the above total, $52,744,000. These bonds are termed as revenue bonds and will be paid exclusively from the Gasoline Tax.

FARM TO MARKET ROADS
The 1947 Session of the Legislature appropriated $5,000,000 for use in construction of "Farm to Market Roads." This appropriation will be matched by the Federal Government. Hence the Highway Department has available $10,000,000 to start a well worked-out Farm to Market system for our State which has been carefully studied, and worked out by Sidney Roebuck, Chairman, Mundell Bush and T. J. Lowry, Highway Commissioners, ably assisted by Highway Director Walter Spivey. See chapters 155 and 219, Laws 1946.

Surplus Mattress Covers To Be Made Into Useful Articles by Blind

Ten thousand surplus mattress covers have solved, at least temporarily, the problem of how to continue a training program which enables inmates to learn to use their hands, at the Mississippi State Institute for the Blind at Jackson, Miss.

The War Assets Administration's New Orleans Public Interest Division, answering an appeal from Charles E. Dampier, Field representative for the Mississippi Surplus Property Procurement Commission, made available the 10,000 covers, each of which contains from 4 to 5 yards of material. The merchandise, in its original state, is cut up and re-made into items such as pillow cases, table cloths, dresser scarfs and the like, by the blind pupils, in a program designed to equip them to earn their livelihood.

The cost of the mattress covers was very nominal, the state institutions being allowed a sizable discount from the fair value.

Fish Bites Woman!

Willie Wells was coming home with a string of trout, when a stern looking lady stops him, and tells him a man his size could be better occupied than catching fish. Willie tells her off real good-naturedly by saying: "Perhaps you're right, but if these fish had kept their mouths shut, they wouldn't be here." (At that, says Willie, laughing out loud, she looked just as if a fish had bit her!)

Blabbing mouths never cause anything but trouble. Nobody who knew the facts would ever criticize Willie's right to go fishing on his one day off—any more than they'd deny his right to come home to a mellow glass of beer.

From where I sit, the slower we are to criticize—and the quicker we are to recognize another's tastes, the better we'll get along together—whether those tastes apply to beer or fishing.

FARM AND NONFARM INCOMES

While all are aware of the fact that salaries and wages generally have taken a decided rise over the period of the war years, it is a bit startling to realize that since 1940 the income of farmers, and others living on farms, has increased 218 per cent. The net average income per person for the farmer was $262.00 annually in 1940, as compared with $832.00 in 1947.

This, of course, is quite a percent, and increase—and a much deserved one. And while farm operating costs have risen rapidly, the farmer still has many more dollars left over for spending than he did before the war. This rise in farm income is largely due to increased output and the rise in prices of farm products. Wheat, for example, sold for 85¢ a bushel in 1940; recently sold for $3 a bushel, and is now selling for $2.00. Too, a sharp decline in the number of persons who share farm incomes also helps to account for this rapid rise in per capita farm incomes. Our rural population has dropped 10 per cent since 1940, while city population has increased 15 per cent since that time.

By comparison, the income of non-farmers, of all persons not living on farms, has risen 92 percent. The average net income of this group was $697.00 in 1940, as compared with $1,339.00 now. This increase is explained by the higher wage rates and a longer work week.

While living standards for both city and farm people are higher now than they have ever been for the laboring groups, they are not as high as the wage increases would indicate due to high cost of living. As we have all found out, dollars today buy much less than they did a few years ago. Statistics show that living costs have risen faster on farms than in cities and that prices paid by farmers for food and clothing are up 126 per cent over 1940, compared with a city consumer increase of 96 per cent for food and 82 per cent for clothing.

An end to high prices might mean different things for farm and city residents. Some city incomes would shrink, of course, with wage cuts and a shorter work week, but most wages would remain relatively high. The farm people, on the other hand, would see any price declines quickly reflected in generally falling incomes.

HOW'S BUSINESS?

Since the prosperity of our laboring and management groups are so closely aligned in this nation's economic set-up, it might be interesting to point out in brief the status of business as compared to that of the laboring groups mentioned above. The Department of Commerce, Federal Reserve Board, and other Government agencies have agreed that while, by prewar standards, business still is excellent, the steady expansion of business for more than a year has halted. Business is still good, but is not picking up. During the past two months the sale of durable goods rose, but sale of luxuries fell; while the overall cost of living remained more or less stationary. Sales resistance seems to be increasing in all groups—from consumer to retailer, from retailer to wholesaler, and from wholesaler to manufacturer.

Factory employment has decreased recently and shipment of manufactured goods even more. As a matter of fact, for the first time since 1942, the average factory employment fell below 40 hours a week.

During the war years when commodities were scarce and wages were high, the nation's individual savings accounts reached a new peak. Now that more commodities are on the market, these savings accounts are being dipped into and are now about down to prewar levels—about 10% of the disposal income. And even though wage and salary payments continue to be higher than they were in 1946, these dollars buy less and at present prices, many families cannot satisfy all of their needs.

As we have previously pointed out, the change from a wartime to a peacetime economy is a drastic one—in some ways more difficult than reconversion from peace to war as it does not entail the same urgency and individual interest of a nation whose sons will be called upon to fight—but we still contend that

Declaration Of American Faith

AFTER the divinity of God nothing is so sacred as the dignity of the individual. It was nature's purpose, through God, that man be free and strong. In a covenant sealed with the blood of patriots "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" were guaranteed the American people forever.

We believe the United States of America is a government of independent individuals in a Republic of Sovereign States built out of the fundamentals of freedom, good character, hard work, true thrift and imperishable ideals.

We believe the Federal Government has such authority only as was delegated to it by the people through their Constitution, a Constitution under which legislative, executive and judicial powers are clearly divided—a Constitution under which the rights of the individual and the sovereignty of the several states are inviolate.

We believe in Americanism, not Communism, Facism or Socialism—we believe in private enterprise and the profit and loss system as opposed to totalitarian ideologies. We believe in the fullest encouragement to individual initiative and self-reliance—that the citizen should depend upon his own efforts for existence and security rather than upon the Government.

We believe in freedom to work; to till one's land, do one's job, ply one's trade, conduct one's business or pursue one's calling under the vigilant protection and application of laws passed with the consent of the governed—that interference with the liberties of the citizen should be reduced to a minimum.

We, therefore, enlist the aid of all forthright, forward thinking men and women in a revival of the American Spirit. Our Republic is mankind's supreme achievement and we will do our utmost to restore and preserve it as the rightful heritage of our children.

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui, many women say, has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. "Take like a tonic. It should stimulate appetite, aid digestion," thus help build strength for the "time" to come. Started 3 days before "your time". It should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes. Try it!

"Such a lucky lady—with a pretty house, nice husband and children—and lots and lots of servants!"

"You're wrong about the servants. I live in a 6-room house, and balance a budget!"

"But, Madam, you have servants to help you in every room! And you pay them very little, indeed. You have a servant to assist with your laundry. Another to help cook your meals. A third to protect your food. A fourth to clean. More to heat and light your home, and entertain you when you're bored. You have electrical servants, Madam—the most willing and dependable servants in the world!"

"Of course, I have electricity but I never thought—"

"This army of domestic help costs you less than a bottle of milk a day! So you see electric service is not only high in efficiency, it's low in cost!"

The average family served by Mississippi Power Company paid 12.6¢ per kilowatt hour for electricity in 1925 and now pay only 3.6¢.

Veterans' News

Disabled veterans eligible for free automobiles must submit their applications to the Veterans Administration sufficiently prior to June 30 to permit processing them before the deadline, VA warned this week.

While the veteran has up to two years after the date in which to effect delivery of the vehicle, VA is not permitted to enter any obligation against the appropriation after midnight, June 30, under present legislation.

Nearly 23,000 disabled veterans of World War II have filed applications for vehicles through May 31 under the law which provides a $1,600 conveyance for those who in service lost or lost the use of one or both legs at or above the ankle.

Of this number, 16,052 applications were approved and nearly 13,000 sales agreements were certified for payment as of the same date.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q. I am a World War II veteran and plan to go to school under the G. I. Bill for the first time next fall. When should I arrange for my entrance into school?

A. You should arrange for your entrance into college or other institution of learning at the earliest possible moment.

Q. What benefits, other than subsistence allowance, is a veteran entitled to while pursuing a course of instruction under the G. I. Bill or under the Vocational Rehabilitation Act?

A. Veterans Administration will pay for his tuition, books, supplies, fees, and other authorized expenses within certain limitations. A disabled veteran may receive a pension of compensation and subsistence allowance concurrently.

Q. In getting a guaranteed loan under the G. I. Bill, must my loan be secured by a lien?

A. Not invariably. Under most circumstances a lien will be required as security for a loan, but there are a few conditions under which a loan may be unsecured.

Q. Do the veteran's rights to a loan guaranty extend indefinitely?

A. No. A guaranty may be had if applied for within ten years from the termination of World War II which has not been declared yet.

Robert Boh Guest Speaker At Bay St. Louis Rotary Club Wednesday

Robert Boh was guest speaker at the Bay St. Louis Rotary Club on Wednesday telling all about the 8 days he and J. D. Mollere Jr., spent in Jackson as delegates to Boys State. J. D. Mollere was unable to attend but Bobby told interestingly of their stay and how they were initiated into the legislative, judiciary and Executive Dept. of state government. The boys put in a full day each day of their stay rising at 6 in the morning and being on the job until ten at night. They published a daily paper in which the affairs of each day were recorded. They enjoyed a jamboree and altogether had a wonderful week.

The Bay St. Louis Rotary Club sponsored these boys. They were selected on the recommendation of their schools.

PMA NEWS

Mr. John S. Flora, County Administrative Officer, Hancock County, A. C. A. releases the following announcement sent to him from the State PMA office in Jackson. Tung nut producers can count on price support for their 1947 crop. T. M. Patterson, State Director of USDA's Production and Marketing Administration, said this week. Patterson said 1947 crop tung nuts will be supported by offering contracts to processors, in which the Commodity Credit Corporation will agree to put tung oil at 25 cents a pound, f. o. b. mills.

The program is similar to that in effect during the war when prices were supported at 30 to 36 cents a pound to insure the production of tung oil for war needs. Contracts for the 1947 crop tung oil will specify the prices that crushers must pay for the nuts, Mr. Patterson said.

POLITICAL RALLY
AND BARBECUE WELL ATTENDED

The candidates of Hancock and Pearl River County really had a gala day on last Saturday at Caesar. Approximately 3000 people were in attendance in spite of the inclement weather. The committee in charge of the barbecue and political rally put on quite a show. There was never a dull moment, with the exception of a short time that a shower of rain stopped the proceedings. Beginning at 10 o'clock with County and District candidates speaking, the picnic ended about 4 o'clock with a very able discussion by Governor Fielding L. Wright in the interest of his candidacy for reelection.

Lones Ladner of Pearl River County, was Master of Ceremonies and he very capably handled his end of the job. Every candidate who wished to submit his candidacy to the voters was afforded the opportunity. Candidates for all of the State offices were either there in person or were represented. Three of the candidates for Lieutenant Governor, Thomas J. Grayson, Jesse Shanks and Sam Lumpkin, spoke for 15 minutes. They were followed by J. Wesley Miller, who represented Paul B. Johnson, Jr., candidate for Governor; State Senator Jesse Byrd, who is urging repeal of the prohibition laws in his quest for the governorship and then by the Governor himself, who defended his administration and his service in the Legislature.

Senator Theodore G. Bilbo was a guest on this occasion and spent the full day on the grounds, meeting his old friends.

—Mrs. S. Allen Bordon, Mrs. Alice Fiment, Miss Emily Spornoff of Marksville, La., Mrs. Bordon's daughters, Mrs. Ralph Ford, Mrs. Edwin David of Baton Rouge, have returned to their homes after visiting with relatives here.

ALTAR SOCIETY NEWS

The first Church fair is over, and we were blessed with good weather, which we were all thankful, as we seem to be in the midst of a rainy season.

As has become customary for the last few years, the Altar Society sponsored a table of fancy work and novelties, and also included the fish pond, which is the mecca for the children, a long line of boys and girls being in evidence during the greater part of the evenings. As is always the way, some were pleased with the "fish" they caught, and others displeased, but everyone caught something no matter how small.

The pillow cases, which netted a neat little sum, were awarded to Miss Evelyn Pecquet of 325 Nicolson avenue, while the drawn work table cloth went to Mrs. T. F. Monti of 305 Main Street. Another pretty piece of hand work, an embroidered luncheon cloth, was given to a Mrs. Enis of New Orleans.

Altogether this table made something around three hundred and fifty dollars ($350.00) a sum of which we are very proud, and for which members are duly grateful to all those who in any way made this possible.

We know that the rest of the concessions did as well, and some better, so on the whole the Fair was a success, and now we have to work towards making the next one on August 2nd and 3rd an even bigger success. So let's start now to work towards that end, for we really have just five weeks in which to prepare for it. Let's go to work!

—Miss Lorraine Bonnevall had as her guests over the week end Miss Lorraine Schwartz, Miss Claire Palmissano, Warren Scott, Jimmy Naimais and Eddie Williams, all of New Orleans.

NOTICE

To give our employees a three day holiday we will be CLOSED July 4th and 5th.
Please order by Thursday morning July 3rd your needs to run through the week-end.

DAILY VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL TO CLOSE
FRIDAY, 7:30 P. M.

The Daily Vacation School held jointly with the Methodist and copal will close with appropriate exercises at the Methodist Church on Friday at 7:30 P. M., to which any one interested is welcome to be present.

The school is divided into four divisions. The beginners under the leadership of Mrs. W. W. Stockstill, Mrs. Doerres and Miss Sarah Vaughn. This class is of pre-school age and learn short bible stories and easy steps in handicraft. Their part on the program will be short recitations songs and a resume of what they have learned.

The Primaries are under the leadership of Mrs. Wayne Alliston, Jr., and have as their theme "The Church." These children are of the ages of 6, 7 and 8 years. They have learned some of the history of their church and have visited other churches and have built a church which will be the center of their part of the program.

The Juniors were in charge of Mrs. J. D. Vaughn and Mrs. Pendleton and had as their theme "Living in the Community" with the story of the Good Samaritan as one type of service, learning how Jesus made friends, and how to live with people in your own community.

Another topic was "How Our Bible Came To Us," tracing how it was first told, then written and printed and circulated in many languages.

The intermediates with Mrs. J. L. Henderson learned about their own church, of the men who started different denominations. Part of their course was the visiting of churches of other denominations. They studied the structure, seating, lighting, windows, methods of serving communion and many other things concerning the church and its services.

A daily paper was edited covering the work of each of the classes. The Sunday School rooms were redecorated. Shelves were built by the boys to hold the Bibles and the girls made stained glass windows.
